

2024 Chelmarsh SC Supernova Class Training Day and Travellers Event

Chelmarsh Reservoir, Hampton Loade, Bridgnorth WV16 6BL

Contact: David Bibby

davidbibby21@gmail.com

Tel:07966 484567

Website: <http://www.chelmarshsailing.org.uk/>

Directions

Chelmarsh SC is on the Welsh side of the Severn Valley. Best access is by taking the B4555.

- If travelling southwards you will see the reservoir on your left. After the Bull Inn in Chelmarsh take first left into the access lane.

- If travelling northwards the right turn into the access lane is at Sutton.

Follow the lane eastwards for about 1 mile past the south end of the lake to the Sailing Club.

Sat Navs Beware

If you enter the postcode into a Sat Nav it is likely to try to take you over a foot bridge at the end of a track and it is a long drive around! Best to enter 'B4555' or 'Sutton'.

Signage will be in place

Camping

There is a grassed area available for camping adjacent to the clubhouse. (This is not serviced except by use of the clubhouse facilities) . If you hope to either camp here or stay in a camper van/vehicle on site please could you use the club Web Collect portal which will be published shortly.

B&B accommodation

Accommodation is available at the following establishments. Note that inclusion on this list does not infer any particular recommendation.

For further information and reviews please refer to the websites.

The Unicorn Pub which is a mile from the club and camping is available.

<https://unicornhamptonloade.co.uk> The Bulls Head, Chelmarsh.

- <http://www.bullsheadchelmarsh.co.uk/> The Swan Inn, Bridgnorth

- <http://www.swaninnbridgnorth.com/>

Bridgnorth is the nearest main town approximately 15 minutes away from Chelmarsh SC.

It is a beautiful Citadel on the River Severn which has many amenities and accommodation options.